JUNGLE ADVENTURE

- Similar to last year there will be a separate Cub Scout and Webelos program at Jungle Adventure 2012.
 - Webelos will have a chance to work on covering requirements for the Sportsman Activity Badge (Pin) and Showman Activity Badge (Pin).
 - Some of the Webelos activities will be different then the Cub Scouts activities.

Note: Great Lakes Council is not guaranteeing that these badges will be completely earned. Its up to leaders to decide which requirements have been fulfilled.

JUNGLE ADVENTURE

- Day Camp Program Directors will divide up the scouts attending camp into Animal Dens based pack number and Webelos/Cub rank.
- Similar to previous years, scouts from several packs to may combined to form one Animal Den at Day Camp.

JUNGLE ADVENTURE

- Each Animal Den will move as one unit rotating to the various assigned stations at Day Camp throughout the day.

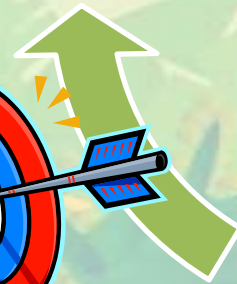

Cheetahs

Lions

Rhinos

JUNGLE ADVENTURE

- Scouts attending Jungle Adventure 2012 will be given a T-Shirt and patch.
- Scouts will also receive their own passport tracking their Jungle Adventure.
- Scouts will also get to keep the crafts that they made.

JUNGLE ADVENTURE

Pack Leadership Requirements:

- Pack Walkers are a MUST. Each Pack must maintain a 1:5 ratio with a minimum of two leaders (Walkers) at camp.
 - If you have 11x scouts at camp from your pack (3x Webelos and 8x Cubs) you need to have 3x Walkers each day at Day Camp one Walker with the Webelos Den and two Walkers with the Cubs Den.
 - If you have 19x scouts at camp from your pack (6x Webelos and 13x Cubs) you need to have 4x Walkers divided between the Webelos Den and Cubs Den.

Pack Leadership Requirements (continued):

- Pack Walkers will be responsible for traveling from station to station, assisting camp staff as needed, and maintaining discipline.
- New Tiger Cubs (Boys that just completed Kindergarten) must have a parent/guardian (Adult Partner) in attendance with the scout each day of camp. The Adult Partners are required to stay with the scout and assist the scout on the Archery and BB Ranges.

SIBLING PROGRAM

If a parent is volunteering as a Walker or Camp Staff, age appropriate siblings (ages 6-11) can also enjoy Day Camp. Siblings must be registered for this program by May 13th, 2012. Siblings using this program will be placed in the same Animal Dens as scouts from your pack. Siblings will have a chance to do all the same activities as the Scouts.

Pack Leadership must account for these Siblings when looking at the Walker ratio. If a parent is a walker for one day, then the Sibling can only attend for that one day. Also same rules for the incoming Tiger Cubs apply for the Siblings. Siblings are not covered under BSA insurance policy.

Note: If for any reason you want to have a sibling that is Webelos level in the Cub Scout Den (to keep the sibling with the parent), please let your District Day Camp Coordinator prior to the start of camp. Younger siblings can NOT move to the Webelos den.

Leaders and Adult Volunteer Guide

This has detailed information about the Day Camp. If you have a question, please refer to this booklet for an answer before contacting council.

JUNGLE ADVENTURE

- Camp Staff

- Each District is in need of volunteers to run the various stations at Day Camp. If you know of someone that is willing to help out at day camp running a station, please pass along the staff application. People to think about for staff positions are teachers, parents, college students, high school students, etc.
- If an application for Day Camp Staff is approved, siblings of Camp Staff can receive a discount.
(See the Leader Volunteer Guide for more information.)

JUNGLE ADVENTURE

- Pack Day Camp Coordinator Responsibilities:
 - As the Pack Day Camp Coordinator you will need you will need to collect registrations forms and payment from parents.
 - Submit pack registration forms on-line and payment to council office prior to May 13th, 2012. On-Line Registration is officially open.
 - Collect health forms and camper release from parents prior to check-in to camp on the first day.
